

Evelyn Goh & Frances Goh

Evelyn Goh and Frances Goh are a pair of twins who share an enduring passion for creative writing, film-making and music composition. Both are certified screenwriters who co-wrote, directed and produced a short film, “Be with us, Mama” in 2016. Creative works are, to them, bridges of communication to all hearts on our shared humanity, regardless of race, language or beliefs. Though we are living in a world of borders, the sisters hope to inspire hearts without borders, filled with boundless love and compassion.
